

JAMMING THE SLIME MOLD ALGORITHM

Collaborative Coding Cluster

Information Technology Building (ITB) 201,
McMaster University

creativealgorithms.ca/queering_sma/
michelle.bunton@queensu.ca

SESSION #1
JULY 9

SESSION #2
JULY 30

SESSION #3
AUGUST 11

10:00am - 2:00pm

JAMMING THE SLIME MOLD ALGORITHM

is a series of creative and critical coding sessions, where we will collectively unravel and rebuild the Slime Mold Algorithm.

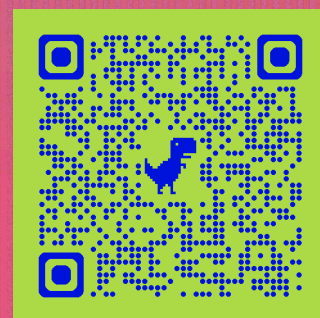

Session #1 will include an artist talk by the Expanded Data artist-in-residence, Michelle Bunton.

These sessions are LGBTQ2S+ friendly and all are welcome! No coding experience is required – instruction on how to code in Python will be provided.

IN SESSION

- collaborative design
- artistic intervention
- open discussion
- queer and trans-coding

RSVP here

RSVP here